

Meet Allison J. Bell, Psy.D.: A Pioneer in Collaborative Divorce and Family Therapy

Providing Compassionate Expertise and Remote Counseling Services from Northfield, Massachusetts

New York City, New York Jun 10, 2024 (IssueWire.com) - Dr. Allison J. Bell, a distinguished clinical psychologist and collaborative divorce coach, has been a beacon of hope for families navigating the complexities of divorce and relational struggles since 1987. As the President of Allison J. Bell, PsyD., P.C., her multifaceted expertise encompasses roles as a family, individual, and couples' therapist, a neutral child specialist, and a neutral court-appointed forensic custody evaluator.

Dr. Bell's unwavering dedication to preserving the integrity of families during times of transition is evident in her innovative approach to divorce coaching and child advocacy. Serving as a coach and child specialist, she guides adults through the challenging process of separation with a keen focus on fostering a harmonious future that prioritizes the well-being of all family members.

As a member of Massachusetts Collaborative Law Council, a trainer at the Collaborative Divorce Training Consortium, and Executive Board Member of the Hudson Valley Collaborative Divorce and Dispute Resolution Association, Dr. Bell continues to shape the landscape of collaborative law and dispute resolution. Her commitment to empowering clients to manage conflict with trust, awareness, and authenticity sets her apart as a true pioneer in the field.

From 1976 to 1978, Dr. Bell Pursued a Master of Science Degree in Dance Therapy at Hunter College. Following this, she attended Yeshiva University from 1981 to 1986, earning a Doctor of Psychology Degree in Clinical Psychology from Ferkauf Graduate School of Psychology - Yeshiva University. With a background rooted in clinical psychology, Dr. Bell's professional journey is marked by a deep commitment to enhancing the lives of her clients. Her extensive involvement in esteemed associations such as the Academy of Professional Family Mediators, the New York State Psychological Association, the American Psychological Association, the Association of Family and Conciliation Courts, the Association for Conflict Resolution, and the International Academy of Collaborative Professionals underscores her status as a trusted expert in her field.

Dr. Bell's passion for education extends beyond her clinical practice, as she has been a revered teacher and workshop facilitator for over four decades. From child development to the neurobiology of divorce, her insights have enlightened countless individuals seeking guidance in challenging times. Her influence extends to the legal realm, where she has educated new lawyers and judges on mediating parenting plans and the impact of divorce on children.

Beyond her professional achievements, Dr. Bell finds joy in contra dancing and unwinding in the serene landscapes of St. Croix. Her personal interests mirror her professional ethos of balance, harmony, and holistic well-being.
