Expert Endodontist Elevates Patient Care in Purcellville, Virginia

New York City, New York Jun 17, 2024 (IssueWire.com) - Dr. Faranak Mahjour, a distinguished board certified endodontist with over 12 years of experience in dentistry, is at the helm of Purcellville Endodontics. Her unwavering commitment to excellence, backed by her extensive training and passion for research, sets her apart in the field of endodontics.

Located in Purcellville, Virginia, Purcellville Endodontics is a cutting-edge practice dedicated to providing exceptional endodontic care in a welcoming environment. The practice is limited to endodontic care, including root canal treatment, retreatment, and root canal surgery.

Dr. Mahjour's journey towards becoming a leading endodontist began with the pursuit of a Doctorate of Dental Surgery Degree in 2011. After two years of hands-on practice and research, her thirst for knowledge led her to the Ph.D. program in Oral Biology at Boston University Henry M. Goldman School of Dental Medicine. With a prestigious fellowship award, Dr. Mahjour delved deep into the realms of research and science, laying a solid foundation for her future endeavors in endodontics.

Driven by her dedication to mastering the intricacies of endodontic care, Dr. Mahjour embarked on an intensive endodontic residency program at the State University of New York at Buffalo. Here, she honed her skills in complex root canal treatments and micro periapical surgeries, leveraging the latest advancements in dental technology to deliver optimal outcomes for her patients. Her stellar performance during the residency earned her recognition as the Resident Spotlight in the American Association of Endodontists (AAE) newsletter.

As a Diplomate of the American Board of Endodontics and a member of esteemed dental organizations such as the American Dental Association, the Northern Virginia Dental Society, the College of Diplomates of the American Board of Endodontics, and the American Association of Endodontists, Dr. Mahjour remains at the forefront of her field. Her commitment to advancing knowledge is showcased through active participation in scientific dental meetings and research endeavors.

Moreover, Dr. Mahjour's impact on the dental community is palpable through her myriad oral and poster presentations, prestigious accolades such as consecutive first-place honors in the American Association of Dental Research (AADR) – Boston chapter, and top recognition with the Russek Student Achievement Award. Her extensive body of work, featured in distinguished journals like the Journal of Endodontics, Journal of Dental Research, and Nature-Oncogenesis Journal, underscores her dedication to pushing the boundaries of dental science.

Beyond her professional achievements, Dr. Mahjour finds joy in spending quality time with her husband, family, and friends. She also enjoys playing tennis, skiing, camping, traveling, and exploring new cultures. Her zest for life and diverse interests mirror her holistic approach to patient care, where compassion and expertise converge to create a truly exceptional dental experience at Purcellville Endodontics.
