A Local Expert Bringing Passion and Expertise to Salt Lake City Real Estate

New York City, New York Jun 11, 2024 (IssueWire.com) - Whitney Fautin, a seasoned realtor with Summit Sotheby's International Realty, is making waves in the Utah real estate market with her unparalleled dedication and expertise.

A native of the well-known Avenues area in Salt Lake City, Whitney has made Utah her lifelong residence and is passionate about the community in which she lives. Her childhood upbringing fostered a strong appreciation and love for the old charm and historical architecture of Salt Lake City and her passion, curiosity, and local lineage have made her a true expert on the city and the beauty and excitement it offers residents.

Having graduated from West High School and obtained a Bachelor's Degree in Mass Communications from the University of Utah, Whitney's journey into real estate was inspired by her mother's impressive 46-year career in the field. While attending school she began working in real estate and fell in love with every aspect of the industry. In 2002, she became a licensed Realtor®, driven by her innate talents and a genuine love for every facet of the profession.

Joining Summit Sotheby's International Realty in the summer of 2021, Whitney was drawn to the brokerage's sterling reputation for providing a luxury real estate experience tailored to each client, regardless of the property's size, location, or price point. With a full-time, in-house team dedicated to marketing, photography, video, and transaction management, Summit Sotheby's International Realty offers a comprehensive suite of services that elevate Whitney's ability to serve her clients with excellence.

With over two decades of experience specializing in residential and investment real estate, along with her local knowledge of the city and surrounding areas, Whitney brings a high level of experience, expertise, and confidence to every transaction. Throughout the process, she often forms close relationships with her clients that go far beyond the purchase or sale of a home.

One of Whitney's favorite aspects of being a real estate professional is sharing the beauty of Utah with her clients, often touring them around the Salt Lake Valley to showcase all the wonders the state has to offer. Her dedication to her clients and her community has earned her recognition as a top producer by the Salt Lake City Board for five consecutive years, solidifying her position as a trusted advisor in the industry.

A resident of the Avenues area, Whitney cherishes creating memories in her historic home with her husband Josh, their three children, and two beloved goldendoodles. Together, they embark on global adventures, immersing themselves in new cultures and expanding their children's horizons.

Along with her husband, Whitney has enjoyed renovating past homes and investing in real estate throughout the years, which has proven fruitful for her family. In her spare time, she loves to stay active by playing tennis, pickleball, and exercising.

An active member of her community, Whitney is a big fan of the University of Utah athletics, attending home football games and gymnastic meets. She also enjoys engaging in volunteer opportunities whenever possible, embodying her commitment to giving back and making a difference.
