

A New Kitchen Company, Kitchen Needs, Launches Kickstarter Campaign for Premium Cast Iron Skillets

San Francisco, California Jul 15, 2024 (Issuewire.com) - A New Kitchen Company, Kitchen Needs, Launches Kickstarter Campaign for Premium Cast Iron Skillets

Offering durable, eco-friendly, and versatile skillets for every home.

Kitchen Needs, a new kitchenware company, is excited to announce the launch of its Kickstarter campaign. The campaign brings two exceptional cast iron skillets to market: a red enamel cast iron skillet and a traditional black cast iron skillet.

Kitchen Needs is set to offer high-quality, durable, and eco-friendly cast iron skillets designed for both home cooks and professional chefs who seek longevity in their kitchenware.

Product Features:

- Red Enamel Cast Iron Skillet: Featuring a non-stick interior, this skillet ensures easy cooking and cleaning. The enamel coating provides rust protection, extending the skillet's lifespan.
- Black Cast Iron Skillet: A versatile and traditional skillet perfect for a wide range of cooking methods, from stovetop to oven. It offers excellent heat retention and distribution, making it ideal for searing, baking, and even making desserts.

Both skillets are crafted to provide superior performance and health benefits, such as rich iron intake and non-toxic cooking. They are designed to deliver beautiful sears on dishes, enhancing the overall cooking experience.

Jonathan Zarate, the owner of Kitchen Needs, stated, "I believe that everyone deserves access to high-quality kitchenware that enhances their cooking experience. Our cast iron skillets are a long-term investment in health, sustainability, and culinary excellence."

Campaign Details:

- Launch Date: July 15th, 2024
- Duration: July 15th to September 15th, 2024
