

Andrew Jonathan Cordiale, DO, MS: Leading Orthopedic Spinal Surgeon Dedicated to Patient Care

Prioritizing Non-Operative Treatments for Enhanced Patient Outcomes

New York City, New York Jul 9, 2024 (IssueWire.com) - Dr. Cordiale, a highly respected board-certified orthopedic spinal surgeon, is renowned for his unwavering commitment to patient well-being and community service. With a practice spanning New York and New Jersey, he holds the esteemed position of Medical Director of Postoperative Services at NewYork-Presbyterian Lower Manhattan Hospital, and serves as an attending physician at NewYork-Presbyterian / Weill Cornell Medical Center and Hudson Regional Hospital.

Emphasizing a patient-centric approach to care, he prioritizes non-operative treatments as the initial intervention, reserving surgery as a last resort. His dedication to enhancing patients' quality of life is evident in his comprehensive medical background and exceptional track record of achievements.

A native New Yorker, Dr. Cordiale graduated in the top 10% of his class at the New York Institute of Technology College of Osteopathic Medicine, excelling with a Master of Science degree in Neuromuscular-skeletal Science and a Master of Science degree in Clinical Nutrition. His academic prowess continued with a fellowship in complex spine surgery at the prestigious Norton Leatherman Spine Center in Louisville, Kentucky.

As a Diplomate of the American Osteopathic Board of Orthopedic Surgery (AOBOS), his expertise in spondylolisthesis has gained international recognition through presentations at prominent spinal surgery conferences. His contributions extend beyond the operating room, with a strong commitment to community service, academic research, and volunteer work both locally and internationally.

Renowned for his outstanding patient care, Dr. Cordiale has been honored with accolades such as the Patients' Choice Award, On-Time Doctor Award, and Compassionate Doctor Recognition. His dedication to advancing the field of orthopedic surgery is underscored by his commitment to ongoing research, education, and patient advocacy.
