

David Smock, MD: Bringing Extensive Experience in Internal Medicine to One Medical Seniors in Tucson, Arizona

Committed to Helping Individuals Lead Healthier, Happier Lives

New York City, New York Jul 12, 2024 (IssueWire.com) - Dr. Smock, a determined internist with a strong background in inpatient care and a commitment to preventive medicine, is affiliated with One Medical Seniors in Tucson, Arizona. With a wealth of experience in healthcare leadership and a passion for patient-centered care, he is poised to make a significant impact on the local medical community.

A native of the Midwest, he hails from the Kansas City area and is a graduate of the combined BA/MD program at the University of Missouri-Kansas City (UMKC). Following his education, he completed his internal medicine residency at UMKC, where he honed his skills as a physician and developed a deep understanding of the complexities of patient care.

Throughout his career, Dr. Smock has practiced in hospitals across Texas, Missouri, Kansas, and now Arizona, where he has been a key member of various leadership committees and has contributed to the development of innovative care models. His decision to transition from inpatient care to focus on preventive medicine at One Medical Seniors reflects his dedication to promoting holistic health and wellness among his patients.

With an unwavering commitment to his specialty, he is board-certified by the American Board of Internal Medicine, showcasing his commitment to excellence in medical practice and ongoing professional development.

In addition to his clinical expertise, Dr. Smock is an avid runner and cyclist, with multiple marathons and an Ironman distance triathlon under his belt. Since relocating to Arizona, he has embraced the opportunity to explore the local trails and mountains with his family and beloved dogs, finding joy and rejuvenation in the great outdoors.

When asked about his success, he attributes it to his unwavering commitment to professional growth and fostering meaningful connections with his patients and their families. For relaxation, his go-to vacation spot is any destination boasting the picturesque mountains of the Western USA.
