Renowned Periodontist Celebrated for Excellence in Practice and Teaching

New York City, New York Jul 22, 2024 (IssueWire.com) - Dr. Michael J. McDevitt, a board-certified periodontist at Periodontal Associates of Georgia, PC, is celebrated for his commitment to providing exceptional periodontal care and advancing dental education. With offices located in Atlanta and Peachtree City, Georgia, Dr. McDevitt offers a comprehensive range of periodontal services, including dental implants, cosmetic periodontal surgery, gum grafting, and crown lengthening.

A graduate with honors from Emory University School of Dentistry in 1971, Dr. McDevitt's passion for periodontics was further ignited during his service in the United States Air Force, where he underwent specialized training in the field. Following this, he completed his formal residency in periodontics at Emory in 1975, further honing his expertise.

Throughout his nearly four decades of clinical practice, Dr. McDevitt has remained dedicated to staying at the forefront of periodontal advancements. He actively pursues ongoing education to provide his patients with the latest diagnostic and therapeutic techniques. His commitment to continuous learning is evident in his ability to adapt to new concepts in disease processes and personalized treatment strategies.

In addition to his clinical practice, Dr. McDevitt is recognized as a prominent figure in dental education. He is a sought-after speaker at various state, regional, and national dental conferences and serves as a visiting faculty member at the prestigious L. D. Pankey Institute, where he imparts his knowledge to graduate dentists. Dr. McDevitt's dedication to mentoring the next generation of dental professionals, having recently begun teaching in workshops for dental teams, underscores his passion for sharing his expertise with others.

Beyond his professional achievements, Dr. McDevitt finds fulfillment in his personal life. He cherishes his enduring marriage to his precious wife, Marty, and takes joy in his role as a loving father and grandfather. Actively involved in his community, Dr. McDevitt and his wife are longstanding members of the Church of the Apostles, reflecting their commitment to service and faith.
