

Top 10 Fun Destinations in September '24 with TRAVELADVANCES.COM

TRAVELADVANCES.COM is excited to share their top 10 fun destinations across the US this September, as voted by thousands of keen travel adventurers.

Fort Worth, Texas Sep 3, 2024 (IssueWire.com) - As summer gives way to fall, September presents a unique opportunity for travel adventurers. With the sweltering heat of summer behind and the crispness of fall on the horizon, September offers the perfect climate for exploring new destinations. Whether you're seeking vibrant city life, scenic nature escapes, or cultural experiences, September throughout the US has something for everyone. Here are the top 10 fun destinations in the US to visit this September with TRAVELADVANCES.COM:

- New Orleans, Louisiana

New Orleans is always a lively city, but September brings a particularly festive spirit. The weather is still warm, and the city hosts the annual French Market's "Creole Tomato Festival," celebrating local produce with live music and culinary delights. Wander through the vibrant French Quarter, enjoy the rich jazz scene, and indulge in some of the best Creole and Cajun cuisine.

"New Orleans is always one of the most popular destinations with our many users at TRAVELADVANCES.COM," says William Cafferata, Chief Executive Officer at TRAVELADVANCES.COM. "No matter the time of year, our travel adventurers simply rave about what New Orleans has to offer."

- Asheville, North Carolina

Nestled in the Blue Ridge Mountains, Asheville is perfect for those looking to enjoy the onset of fall foliage. September's mild temperatures make it ideal for hiking the trails of the Great Smoky Mountains or exploring the quirky downtown area. Don't miss the Asheville Food Tour to sample the city's renowned farm-to-table cuisine.

- San Diego, California

San Diego's weather is pleasant year-round, but September is especially enjoyable before the autumn chill sets in. The San Diego Zoo's "Giraffe Encounter" offers a unique chance to get close to these majestic creatures. Additionally, the city hosts "Bayfair," a thrilling boat race on Mission Bay, which is perfect for sports enthusiasts.

- Portland, Oregon

Portland in September is a vibrant mix of cultural events and natural beauty. The Portland Rose Festival, which continues into the fall, features a variety of arts and crafts, and the city's many farmers' markets showcase the best of the region's produce. Take a day trip to the nearby Columbia River Gorge to witness stunning waterfalls and lush scenery.

- Napa Valley, California

September marks the beginning of the grape harvest season in Napa Valley, making it an ideal time for wine enthusiasts to visit. Participate in "Crush Season" activities where you can enjoy wine tastings and vineyard tours, and even join in on grape stomping events. The weather is perfect for exploring the beautiful vineyards and indulging in gourmet dining.

- Savannah, Georgia

Savannah's historic charm shines in September, with the heat of summer fading and comfortable temperatures arriving. The Savannah Music Festival brings a range of live performances, and the city's historic district offers picturesque streets and stunning architecture. Enjoy a relaxing stroll through Forsyth Park and savor the city's Southern hospitality.

- Denver, Colorado

As summer transitions to fall, Denver offers a delightful blend of urban excitement and natural beauty. Attend the Great American Beer Festival, one of the largest beer festivals in the country, or explore the vibrant Denver Art Museum. For outdoor enthusiasts, the nearby Rocky Mountains offer hiking and stunning autumn scenery.

- Charleston, South Carolina

Charleston, with its well-preserved history and charming streets, is a great September destination. The Charleston Restaurant Week highlights the city's culinary scene with special menus and deals at top restaurants. Explore historic sites, take a relaxing carriage ride, and enjoy the pleasant weather along the city's picturesque waterfront.

- Austin, Texas

Austin's music scene and cultural festivals come alive in September. The Austin City Limits Music Festival kicks off this month, drawing music lovers from all over with its diverse lineup of performances. The city's lively food scene, including famous food trucks and local eateries, makes it a great spot for both entertainment and dining.

- Lake Tahoe, California/Nevada

For a mix of outdoor adventure and relaxation, Lake Tahoe is a top pick in September. The weather is perfect for hiking, boating, and enjoying the serene lakeside views. September also offers fewer crowds compared to peak summer months, allowing for a more tranquil experience. Explore the surrounding Sierra Nevada mountains or simply enjoy the lake's clear waters.
