

Alfredo Iardino, MD: A Pillar of Pulmonary Care at CHI St. Alexius Health Heart & Lung Clinic

Dedicated Physician Enhancing Respiratory Health in Bismarck, North Dakota

New York City, New York Oct 19, 2024 (IssueWire.com) - CHI St. Alexius Health Heart & Lung Clinic is proud to highlight the contributions of Alfredo Iardino, MD, a distinguished pulmonologist and critical care physician dedicated to advancing respiratory health in the Bismarck community. With a focus on lung cancer, sepsis, hematological disorders in the ICU, interstitial lung disease, and cystic fibrosis, Dr. Iardino brings a wealth of knowledge and experience to his patients.

His journey began in Italy, where he was born, before relocating to Venezuela with his family at four. After earning his Medical Degree from the University of Carabobo Faculty of Health Sciences in 2011, Dr. Iardino moved to the United States to further his career. His early work as a researcher at Houston Methodist Hospital laid a strong foundation for his medical practice. He completed an internal medicine residency at Texas Tech University Health Sciences Center (Permian Basin) from 2016 to 2019, followed by a critical care and pulmonology fellowship at the Kirk Kerkorian School of Medicine at UNLV from 2019 to 2022.

As a triple board-certified physician in internal medicine, pulmonary disease, and critical care medicine by the American Board of Internal Medicine, Dr. Iardino is recognized for his commitment to excellence in patient care. He is an active member of several professional organizations, including the American Medical Association, the American College of Physicians (where he serves as a Texas Chapter Board Member), and the American Thoracic Society.

In addition to his clinical work, Dr. Iardino is dedicated to education and mentorship. Since 2022, he has served as an Assistant Clinical Professor of Medicine at the University of North Dakota, where he shares his expertise with the next generation of healthcare professionals, ensuring the continued advancement of medical practice in the region.

Outside his professional responsibilities, Dr. Iardino enjoys playing pickleball and indulging in reef keeping, reflecting his diverse interests. He cherishes vacations in Italy, his homeland, and is fluent in Italian, English, and Spanish, allowing him to connect with a broad range of patients and colleagues.

CHI St. Alexius Health Heart & Lung Clinic is fortunate to have Dr. Iardino on its team. His dedication to patient care and medical education is making a significant impact in Bismarck and beyond.
