Growing up in Largo, Florida, Holly has a lifelong connection to the Greater Tampa Bay Area. She spent her childhood exploring the beautiful coastal beaches from Clearwater Beach to Pass-a-Grille Beach. In 1993, Holly embarked on her entrepreneurial journey as a business partner, achieving success in Fort Myers. Years later, in 2012, she took another leap into residential home development in Lexington, Massachusetts, working as a business operations assistant with a contractor specializing in excavation.

Her commitment to community involvement allows her to help clients discover that perfect "home feeling" by understanding their desires.

A resident of Dunedin since 2003, Holly enjoys the laid-back, pet-friendly atmosphere and vibrant community spirit. She lives with her partner, Paul, and their beloved white golden retriever, Nala, making her well-acquainted with the local lifestyle.
