

Dragon and Berr Truth or Dare latest album drop!

Atlanta, Georgia Nov 8, 2024 (Issuewire.com) - Loose Bolt Records, an independent record label founded by the husband-and-wife rock duo (Edwin and Donna Millheim) Dragon and Berr, is proud to announce the 9th full length album.

The highly anticipated new album "Truth or Dare" by Dragon and Berr dropped on November 1st, 2024, and it is a sonic rollercoaster.

This electrifying collection of 11 songs features three singles, the anthemic "Where Has the Punk Rock Gone", the emotionally charged "You Left Me Empty I'll Fill Up with Hate Instead", and the nostalgic yet raw "Not Like I'm 18 Again".

The album is a blend of explosive energy, heartfelt lyrics, and unrelenting passion, with surprises like the Punk Rap title song "Truth or Dare" featuring the Atlanta Rap artist Holly Hood Tay.

The Metal song "Field of Flowers" with Dragon and Berr non-exclusive member Chris Waters (Bass Player most of the time) taking the lead for most of that song and Edwin doing the intro and the outro vocals.

Songs like "Remember Me in the Rain" and "The Sky Was Never Blue" swing back into highly emotional heart string tugging realms of true love tinged with a little regret for the time we have left in our mortal coil.

Dragon and Berr continue to push the boundaries of their sound. "Truth or Dare" is an album that will leave listeners breathless, reminding everyone why they fell in love with true indie under ground music in the first place.

Truth or Dare by Dragon and Berr is out now at all major electronic retailers and streaming services.
