

Shincheonji Church of Jesus' Chairman Lee Man-hee: Transforming Faith communities at 93

National church tours promote a clear understanding of the Bible today and a culture of peace, captivating believers and local residents.

Chicago, Illinois Dec 2, 2024 (IssueWire.com) - Chairman Lee Man-hee of Shincheonji Church of Jesus, Temple of the Tabernacle of the Testimony continues to inspire revival amongst believers and religious communities alike, as he tours South Korea. At the remarkable age of 93, Chairman Lee has visited over 60 branch churches this year. With each church visit, his face-to-face interactions with believers provide a chance to deepen their understanding of faith and reflect on the core teachings of the Bible.

Chairman Lee's visits draw immense crowds, not only filling churches but also the parks and streets of local communities. Residents curious about the buzz often join the gatherings and speak of how deeply moved they are by his profound biblical insights.

One local resident remarked, "A lot of people gathered and wondered what was going on. It turned out that Chairman Man-hee Lee was coming. I thought I should listen to him because he had to be such an amazing person for so many people to gather around him."

Another citizen reflected on a similar gathering; “When I actually listened to the sermon, I was surprised that he could explain the Bible with such depth and clarity.” The increase in local interest has led to a steady rise in individuals eager to learn more about Shincheonji Church of Jesus.

In addition to his local church visits, Chairman Lee has held numerous Bible conferences, preaching key contents of the Bible, including the Book of Revelation. Through these lectures, he emphasizes a proper understanding of the scripture. He calls on pastors to guide their congregations with truth and accuracy, underscoring the need for faith grounded in biblical principles.

Chairman Lee's ongoing tour is expanding collaboration between Shincheonji Church of Jesus and various churches across the country. As of October of this year, 756 churches across South Korea have signed Memorandums of Understanding to establish relationships with Shincheonji -- 62 of which have adopted new sign boards as partners. This spirit of cooperation marks meaningful change and is reshaping the religious landscape by promoting growth and unity.

Chairman Lee’s passion and dedication to ministry exemplifies his deep sincerity and faith. Even at this incredible age of 93, his tireless efforts serve as a beacon of inspiration, sparking renewed interest in the Bible and fostering harmony throughout the broader religious community. As the church continues to grow, people are taking note as to what impact Shincheonji will have on the religious world, and on society in the future.
