

Adelaide's Jenna Newbery Releases Captivating Sound Healing Track Days of Sunset

Adelaide sound healing musician blends nostalgia and innovation in her latest release, a soul-soothing track available on all major platforms

Adelaide , South Australia Dec 3, 2024 (IssueWire.com) - Jenna Newbery, Reiki master, sound healing musician, and Insight Timer meditation teacher, is set to release her latest single, Days of Sunset, on Wednesday, December 11th at 11:11 AM local time across all music streaming platforms, including Spotify.

Drawing inspiration from the serene coastal landscapes of Wallaroo—a charming country beach town on the Yorke Peninsula where Jenna spent her formative years—Days of Sunset is a musical journey that encapsulates the tranquility and nostalgia of the seaside town.

A Musical Masterpiece Born from BandLab

In a testament to the accessibility of modern music creation, Days of Sunset was produced entirely on BandLab, a revolutionary app that empowers creators of all levels to produce professional-quality music. Utilizing BandLab's extensive library of loops and samples, Jenna crafted a piece that not only showcases her artistry but also highlights how intuitive technology can democratize music production.

"BandLab makes music creation so effortless that even those new to music can dive in and start creating immediately," says Jenna. "It's incredible how technology can unlock creativity we didn't even know we had."

Experience the Healing Power of Sound

Jenna is celebrated for her diverse range of modern sound healing music—including binaural beats, solfeggio frequencies, chakra healing compositions, and her specialty: Reiki-infused melodies. Since officially releasing her music on platforms like Spotify in 2021, she has touched countless listeners seeking solace, meditation, and spiritual connection through sound.
