

Bambi Johnson: The Heart and Soul of iPizza, Scottsdale's Community-Driven Pizzeria

Scottsdale, Arizona Dec 3, 2024 (IssueWire.com) - Bambi Johnson: The Heart and Soul of iPizza, Scottsdale's Community-Driven Pizzeria

At iPizza, the recipe for success isn't just about the perfect hand-tossed crust or top-shelf ingredients—it's about the vision, passion, and commitment of its founder, Bambi Johnson. A woman-owned and operated business, iPizza is more than just a New York-style pizzeria; it's a cornerstone of the Scottsdale community, blending food, art, and culture to create an experience that's as satisfying as the meals it serves.

A Legacy of Restaurant Excellence

With a wealth of experience spanning decades, Bambi Johnson's journey to founding iPizza is grounded in her deep roots in the restaurant industry. In the 1970s, she co-owned the iconic Mansion Diner in New York City, a beloved establishment that remains a staple in Manhattan to this day. She also recently played a pivotal role in the success of 5th Ave Wine Bar & Cafe in Old Town Scottsdale, a local favorite.

This extensive background reflects her unwavering commitment to quality and hospitality, which shines through every aspect of iPizza. Guided by her philosophy that dining should be more than a meal, she created iPizza as a space where family, culture, and creativity could thrive. Whether it's a group of friends enjoying a live music night on the patio or students displaying their artwork on the walls, iPizza is as much about fostering connections as it is about serving incredible food.

A Menu That Goes Beyond Pizza

While iPizza is known for its incredible New York-style pizzas, the menu features an array of Italian classics, including stromboli, chicken parmesan sandwiches, fresh salads, and appetizers like garlic knots and mozzarella sticks. Gluten-free, vegan, and budget-friendly options ensure that everyone can enjoy a meal that's tailored to their needs.

Giving Back to Scottsdale

iPizza's impact on the community extends far beyond the kitchen. A proud supporter of Coronado High School, she sponsors the basketball team and provides a platform for student artists to sell and exhibit their work at iPizza. These initiatives reflect her belief in empowering the next generation, giving students opportunities to shine while connecting the community with their creative talents.

A Celebration of Art and Music

Bambi has also transformed iPizza into a hub of culture and creativity. The restaurant features artwork by the renowned Roger Merritt, whose vibrant pieces bring a gallery-like atmosphere to the space. Additionally, iPizza's patio comes alive with weekly live music events featuring local talent like Joey Weissgerber, making it the perfect spot to unwind with friends and family.
