

ISCPO Appoints New Member to its Board of Directors

The International Supply Chain Protection Organization (ISCPO) welcomes Rafael López Zepeda to its Board

Dallas, Texas Dec 17, 2024 (IssueWire.com) - The International Supply Chain Protection Organization (ISCPO.org) announced today the new addition to its Board of Directors: Rafael López Zepeda – Global Corporate Security Director for Bocar Group.

“As we strengthen our international presence, we’re thrilled to announce that Rafael López Zepeda of Bocar Group has joined our board of directors,” states Glenn Master, ISCPO President and Chairman. “Rafael’s expertise in the global security market, especially in LATAM, aligns perfectly with our strategic growth plans. With his guidance, we anticipate a significant expansion in Mexico and Latin America.” Master concluded by stating “Our mission at the ISCPO is to connect supply chain security professionals worldwide, providing a platform for collaboration and innovation.”

Rafael López Zepeda is a highly experienced Security Professional with over 15 years of international experience in various sectors, including oil and gas, mining, and real estate. He specializes in Crisis Management, Corporate Security, and Risk Management, with a focus on assessing and mitigating threats in a globalized environment. Currently, he serves as the Global Corporate Security Director for Bocar Group, where he oversees the development and implementation of a robust global security strategy, prioritizing Supply Chain Security and Business Continuity. Previously, he held leadership roles at Kroll, WeWork, and Control Risks Mexico, where he managed executive protection teams, developed security programs for expatriates, and conducted risk assessments and training across Latin America. Earlier in his career, he gained valuable experience in project management and risk management on large-scale infrastructure projects in Mexico.
