Las Vegas, Nevada Dec 18, 2024 (IssueWire.com) - The talented and musically gifted Patty Ascher is here with her newest song, 'Rock With You'. Released not long ago, the song has already captivated listeners from all around the world and is performing pretty amazingly on different streaming platforms. The song was awaited with quite a lot of anticipation and after releasing, the record definitely surpassed the expectations of the musician's fanbase. The song was accepted with open arms and ears, making it the artist's one of the most liked compositions out there. With the soaring popularity of the record, the song can very well be the musician's best-performing song on the chart as well.

In the song, 'Rock With You', the artist showcased refined artistry and her creative musicality that is hard to forget even after the song ends. The composition cannot pinpoint to a single genre, but the artist has combined various music genres such as Pop, and Jazz. At one point, the composition reminds the audience of the old Bossa Nova. With energetic beats and a catchy vibe, the song is here to make people feel good. The Brazilian singer is based in Las Vegas and has had a passion for music since her childhood. Her love for music is also clearly visible in everything she composes, including this new single.

Patty was the first Brazilian artist to perform at the Jerry Lewis MDA Telethon in 2011 and in the same year, she also toured twice with Oscar winner Michel Legrand and received a Grammy nomination.
