

Worksoft and The Cervantes Group Form Strategic Partnership to Accelerate Enterprise Automation Across U.S. and Europe

Partnership combines Worksoft's leading automation platform with The Cervantes Group's IT integration expertise to deliver streamlined digital transformations and enhanced business agility for enterprise clients.

Addison, Texas Dec 11, 2024 (IssueWire.com) - Worksoft, a global leader in Enterprise Application Testing Automation, and The Cervantes Group, an international business and technology integration firm based in Chicago, have launched a strategic partnership to support enterprises across the U.S., Europe, LATAM, and the Caribbean in advancing their automation goals. By integrating The Cervantes Group's proven expertise in IT consulting and multi-channel integration with Worksoft's no-code automation platform, the partnership enables organizations to implement faster, more reliable digital transformation projects.

This collaboration brings together Worksoft's automation technology - trusted by Fortune 500 companies to streamline ERP migrations, deployments, and updates - with The Cervantes Group's deep regional knowledge and experience in IT integration. With this alliance, the group will now offer Worksoft's platform to help clients reduce implementation risks, improve process accuracy, and enable IT and business teams to work together on end-to-end automation solutions.

"The Cervantes Group's expertise in integration aligns seamlessly with our automation platform to create a robust pathway for clients' digital transformation," said Matthew Schwartz, CEO of Worksoft. "This partnership supports businesses across key markets by helping them achieve their strategic goals efficiently and effectively."

For The Cervantes Group, this partnership adds a powerful automation component to their suite of offerings. "The combination of Worksoft's automation platform with our integration capabilities brings unmatched value to our clients," said Joanna Bauza, Co-Founder and President of The Cervantes Group. "This alliance provides an efficient, streamlined approach to digital transformation, helping our clients stay ahead in competitive markets."

This strategic alliance will serve enterprises in high-demand markets across the U.S., Europe, LATAM, and the Caribbean, with a focus on simplifying complex business transformations and enhancing business agility. Together, Worksoft and The Cervantes Group are poised to deliver results-driven automation solutions that meet the needs of today's digital economy.

Media Contact

Worksoft Inc.

avanrensburg@worksoft.com

Source : Worksoft Inc.

See on IssueWire