

A Cry for Help to Save Daddy's Little Girl from Poverty

Metropolitan Manila Area, Philippines Jan 13, 2025 (IssueWire.com) - Family is the most important thing in a person's life, especially if it is about a daughter who needs to be reunited with her father. This is the story of Brandon Nieto and his little daughter who are struggling each day to be reunited with each other. Nieto is a single father from the United States of America, currently living in the Philippines seeking custody of his beloved little daughter. He has also set up a GoFundMe where people are welcome to donate as much as they can so that this unfortunately separated father-daughter can get back to each other again.

Nieto has already gone to court with the issue but received little help. Now, his faith is placed in humanity where even just $1 can help him in his fight. Not only his daughter is living without a secure and protective father, but she is also living in poverty. The mother of the child has kept her in an unfit neighborhood where the child is facing daily problems even to breathe clean air. As a result of living in an unfit neighborhood, Nieto's daughter stays sick constantly. Let's stand with the loving father in this battle with as much donation as you can.
