Corey Sandberg: A Rising Star in Denver's Commercial Real Estate Sector

New York City, New York Jan 15, 2025 (IssueWire.com) - Corey Sandberg, Vice President of Pinnacle Real Estate Advisors, has solidified his position as a leading figure in the commercial real estate industry, bringing over 20 years of expertise to the firm since joining in 2015. With a remarkable track record of facilitating over $250 million in transactions, Corey is dedicated to helping clients unlock the full potential of their real estate investments, having built his own portfolio of properties.

Corey's journey into real estate began in his childhood, growing up in a family deeply rooted in construction and housing development in Arizona. By the age of 16, he had already taken the initiative to run his own landscape design and construction business, showcasing an entrepreneurial spirit that would define his career. After serving five years as an Airborne Infantryman in the Army, including deployments to Iraq and Afghanistan, Corey returned to civilian life with a renewed sense of purpose.

His passion for teamwork and perseverance was further evident when he walked onto the University of Idaho football team as a linebacker to play alongside his brother, Dallas. Their inspiring journey captured the attention of numerous media outlets, including ESPN, highlighting their commitment to excellence and family bonds. Corey graduated with a Bachelor of Science Degree in Business from the establishment, establishing a strong foundation for his future endeavors in the real estate sector.

Corey's unique combination of construction knowledge, real estate acumen, and business insight enables him to provide unparalleled guidance throughout the investment process—from negotiations to contract execution. He is committed to utilizing the comprehensive resources available at Pinnacle Real Estate Advisors to develop tailored strategies that drive his clients' success.

In 2024, Corey was awarded the prestigious #4 Top Retail Investment Broker of the Year by the Denver Metro Commercial Association of Realtors, a testament to his dedication and success in the field. He credits his achievements to his father's unwavering work ethic, his military training, and a client-first business philosophy that emphasizes integrity and long-term relationships.

After traveling to over 20 countries, living in Colorado has deepened Corey's appreciation for the state's stunning landscapes, family-friendly atmosphere, and abundant opportunities. With a passion for helping clients achieve their real estate goals, Corey Sandberg continues to be a driving force in Denver's commercial real estate market, ensuring that success follows when the right principles guide the way.
