

Darshan Hiranandani: Transforming Real Estate and Driving Sustainable Development

Under the leadership of Darshan Hiranandani, the Hiranandani Group has transformed from a simple real estate company to a diversified business with its presence in the energy, technology, and infrastructure sectors.

Lucknow, Uttar Pradesh Jan 14, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - Born on October 13, 1981, Darshan Hiranandani hails from Mumbai, Maharashtra. The CEO of Hiranandani Group, the major real estate company in Mumbai and one of the largest in India, he studied in the United States and earned an MBA in Entrepreneurship and Finance as well as a bachelor's degree in management information systems from the Rochester Institute of Technology in New York.

Since he became CEO in 2010, Darshan has diversified the Hiranandani Group into various sectors like data centers, energy, logistics, and semiconductors. This prudent growth has brought him an estimated net worth of $1.5 billion by 2023. Some of the major companies he leads include:

Yotta Infrastructure

Yotta is a digital transformation company that provides services like data centers, cloud solutions, and IT management. The company has big data center parks in Navi Mumbai and Greater Noida, and it plans to grow even more. Yotta focuses on being environmentally friendly by using green energy and energy-efficient cooling technologies in its data centers.

H-Energy

H-Energy works in energy infrastructure, handling natural gas projects like LNG terminals and pipelines. Some of its key achievements include a 635 km-long natural gas pipeline and India's first Floating Storage and Regasification Unit (FSRU) in Jaigarh, Maharashtra. The company is also developing city gas networks to supply natural gas to homes, businesses, and vehicles.

It's about entering the semiconductor industry by making compound semiconductors, which are going to be used in advanced technologies such as 5G, electric vehicles, renewable energy, and defense. This is aimed at helping India increase its semiconductor production.

Tez Platforms

Tez Platforms is a consumer services company and a subsidiary of the Hiranandani Group. Though information is scarce, it appears to be a tech-enabled solution for retail, hospitality, and digital finance, emphasizing convenience and sustainability.

Conclusion

Under the leadership of Darshan Hiranandani, the Hiranandani Group has transformed from a simple real estate company to a diversified business with its presence in the energy, technology, and infrastructure sectors. His visionary leadership has been instrumental in India's growth in these areas, making a huge difference to the country's economy and infrastructure.
