

Dr. Lynne Fenton: Providing Comprehensive Mental Health Care at Private Psychiatry Practice

Experienced Psychiatrist Brings 15 Years of Expertise from Academia to Personalized Patient Care

with extensive experience in treating a wide range of psychiatric conditions. After serving on the psychiatry faculty at the University of Colorado School of Medicine for 15 years, she transitioned to her private practice, where she offers tailored treatment plans for patients aged 13 and up. Her expertise encompasses complex medical cases, peripartum conditions, and other psychiatric disorders, ensuring that each patient receives comprehensive and compassionate care.

Pertaining to her educational pursuits, she is a graduate of the Chicago Medical School, where she earned her medical degree in 1986. She is board-certified in psychiatry, having completed her certification in 2008, and is also board-certified in Physical Medicine and Rehabilitation from Northwestern University Medical Center/The Rehabilitation Institute of Chicago, a distinction she has held since 1990. Furthermore, she has completed the Master Psychopharmacology program at the Neuroscience Education Institute, enhancing her ability to provide effective medication management alongside therapeutic interventions.

“It is a privilege to use my knowledge and expertise to help my patients find the most useful treatments for their psychiatric conditions,” said Dr. Fenton. “I believe in a holistic approach to mental health, where we address not just the symptoms but the underlying factors contributing to a person’s well-being. I look forward to working with each patient to develop a personalized plan that leads to optimum mental health.”

Dr. Fenton is licensed to practice in Colorado and Tennessee, expanding her reach to serve a diverse patient population. Her practice is designed to foster a warm and welcoming environment, ensuring that patients feel safe and supported throughout their treatment journey.
