A Chicago-based photography studio specializing in discovering the beauty of life.

Chicago, Illinois Jan 20, 2025 (IssueWire.com) - Chicago's winter season, with its snow-kissed streets and sparkling cityscapes, offers the perfect backdrop for romantic photography. Numi Studio, a leading photography studio, is delighted to unveil a winter-inspired portfolio that captures the magic of love and artistry in every frame. To highlight their creative vision, the studio collaborated with special guest, Erin Luo, showcasing Chicago in the beautiful snow.

Chicago winters provide a unique charm that sets the stage for timeless wedding photos. Numi Studio takes full advantage of the season's natural beauty—soft snowfall, shimmering skylines, and cozy urban settings—to create unforgettable moments for couples.

“Winter is one of our favorite times to shoot,” says a NUMI Studio representative. “The season's tranquility and natural light allow us to craft photos that feel intimate, magical, and cinematic.”

To highlight their technical skill and artistic approach, Numi Studio collaborated with Erin Luo, a distinguished print model and actor. The project features moments captured under glowing streetlights. The elegance and professionalism added a touch of sophistication to this special showcase.

“Our goal was to demonstrate how winter's natural beauty can elevate any shoot, including weddings,” explains Numi Studio. “Erin's presence helped us bring that vision to life, allowing us to highlight the level of quality and artistry couples can expect when they choose us.”
