

SGI Stone Giant Investment Partners with Powbit Online Entertainment Group

Joining Hands for a Shared Future

Barrow, Alaska Jan 15, 2025 (IssueWire.com) - On August 15, 2024, the investment management industry witnessed a groundbreaking collaboration: SGI Stone Giant Investment Management Group and Powbit Online Entertainment Group officially signed a strategic partnership agreement. The two companies will leverage their respective strengths and collaborate deeply in blockchain-based online entertainment. This partnership marks a new phase of mutually beneficial growth for both companies and brings renewed innovation and vitality to the industry.

Partnership Background: A Strategic Alliance for Joint Development

SGI Stone Giant Investment Management Group, as a leading institution in investment management, boasts extensive asset management experience and a global perspective. Powbit, renowned for its technological innovation and impeccable reputation, has delivered exceptional performance in the online entertainment sector in recent years. This collaboration is founded on the shared vision of both companies in online entertainment, aiming to drive innovation, achieve resource sharing, and maximize mutual benefits.

Partnership Highlights: Innovation and Value Creation at the Core

- Asset Management Innovation

The two companies will jointly promote Powbit's innovative online entertainment products by integrating their financial technology and big data analytics resources. This will provide clients with more diversified and cutting-edge wealth management solutions.

- Empowering with Technology

By combining Powbit's advanced blockchain technology in online entertainment with SGI's sharp market insights and robust investment research capabilities, the partnership will establish new standards of fairness and transparency in the online entertainment industry.

- Global Expansion

Leveraging this collaboration, both companies will expand their presence in international markets, strengthening their strategic positioning and resource sharing in Europe, the Americas, and the Middle East. This will enable them to deliver premium services to clients worldwide.

Leadership Remarks: Collaborating for a Prosperous Future

At the signing ceremony, SGI CEO Ms. Nina stated:

"In the post-pandemic era, iGaming is one of the fastest-growing global industries. This partnership is not only a testament to the complementary strengths and value creation of both companies but also a significant step toward high-quality industry development. We look forward to creating more value for our members, the industry, and society through this strategic collaboration."

Powbit's Online Business CEO, Kerry, added:

"We share a common vision and mission with SGI. Through this partnership, we are confident that we can provide clients with more diverse, innovative, and efficient solutions."

Industry Reactions: Setting a New Benchmark for Collaboration

The partnership has garnered significant attention from industry media, with many hailing it as a pioneering approach. Renowned online entertainment review platform Casino.org commented: "In an increasingly competitive market, cross-sector alliances between industry leaders are a critical pathway to innovation. This partnership undoubtedly sets a new benchmark for collaboration in the industry."

Future Outlook: Advancing Sustainable Development Together

Looking ahead, the two companies will deepen their partnership, driving continuous innovation in entrepreneurship incubation and the online entertainment industry. They aim to promote industry progress while achieving higher levels of sustainable development.
