

Von Barz Accelerates Into 2025 With New Single “Nazcar”

Charlotte, North Carolina Jan 4, 2025 (IssueWire.com) - Georgetown’s Rising Star Blends Hip-Hop and Racing Culture in a High-Energy Anthem

From the scenic streets of Georgetown, SC, to the adrenaline-fueled racetracks of his dreams, Von Barz is making waves in the music world with his latest single, “Nazcar.” Released on January 6, 2025, this high-energy track is more than just a song—it’s a bold cultural statement and a personal reflection of the artist’s journey.

“Nazcar” showcases Von Barz’s unique ability to merge two seemingly disparate worlds: hip-hop and motorsports. Inspired by his lifelong love of cars and his deep connection to NASCAR, the track serves as a metaphor for life’s races—the struggles, the triumphs, and the relentless pursuit of success.

“This track is about more than just fast cars,” says Von Barz. “It’s about life’s tempo and how you navigate the twists and turns to reach the finish line. Whether you’re on a track or in the game of life, you’ve got to keep pushing forward, stay in your lane, and finish strong.”

Von Barz’s connection to racing culture runs deep, with personal experiences tied to his time at the NASCAR Hall of Fame. Working there gave him a unique perspective on the sport’s legacy and inspired him to weave its themes into his music.

A Cultural Bridge Between Hip-Hop and Racing

“Nazcar” isn’t just an anthem for fans of fast cars—it’s a call to action for dreamers everywhere. With its infectious beat and powerful lyrics, the track embodies resilience, ambition, and the power of blending cultures. Von Barz hopes to inspire listeners to embrace their passions, break barriers, and redefine what’s possible.

Fans can stream “Nazcar” on all major platforms starting January 6, 2025. With this release, VonBarz is shifting gears and steering hip-hop into uncharted territory, proving that the race isn’t just about speed—it’s about heart.
