

Board In The Kitchen Launches Customizable Corian Cutting Boards, Ideal for Birthday Gifts

Board In The Kitchen launches customizable Corian cutting boards, ideal for birthday gifts, combining durability, hygiene, and unique customization options.

Pierre, South Dakota Feb 24, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - Board In The Kitchen, a provider of handcrafted kitchenware, today announced the launch of its new line of customizable Corian cutting boards, offering a unique and practical option for birthday gifts, among other occasions. These boards combine durability and hygiene catering to both home cooks and culinary professionals. The company offers a variety of sizes, shapes, and customization options to meet diverse needs and preferences.

Corian, a solid surface material, is utilized in these cutting boards due to its non-porous nature. This property contributes to resistance against staining, odor absorption, and bacterial growth, promoting a cleaner and safer food preparation environment. The material's inherent durability ensures the cutting boards can withstand consistent use and retain their quality over time. The smooth surface is also designed to be gentle on knife blades, helping to maintain their sharpness.

“We are pleased to introduce our customizable Corian cutting boards,” said Rich Post. “These boards represent our commitment to providing high-quality kitchenware that is both functional and aesthetically pleasing. The ability to custom create each board shape makes them particularly well-suited for birthday gifts, allowing customers to create a present that is both thoughtful and practical.”

Board In The Kitchen offers its Corian cutting boards in a range of sizes, accommodating various culinary tasks from everyday chopping to extensive meal preparation. Customers can select from an array of standard shapes, or they can collaborate with the company’s design team to develop custom shapes tailored to their specific needs. This flexibility in size and shape ensures customers can find a board that fits their cooking habits and kitchen space.

Beyond size and shape, Board In The Kitchen custom cutting boards allows for the creation of unique and memorable presents that will be cherished for years to come. The materials used to create the boards are great as a showpiece or for actual use, preserving its appearance with regular use and cleaning.

The company emphasizes providing kitchenware that combines practicality with visual appeal. The introduction of customizable Corian cutting boards, especially as an option for birthday gifts, reinforces this focus. These boards are intended to serve as both functional tools for food preparation and attractive additions to any kitchen décor.

Board In The Kitchen is dedicated to providing customers with comprehensive information about its products.
